FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Drive-By Shooting Nets Two Arrests

On June 8, 2014 at approximately 10:00 p.m., Covina Police Officers responded to the 300 block of North Prospero Drive in regards to a “shots fired” call in the area. Responding officers observed a vehicle leaving the area which resulted in the detention and subsequent arrest of a 21 year old male subject identified as Fernando Cabrera, a Covina resident. Responding officers discovered that a parked vehicle had been struck by gunfire. A group of pedestrians in the area also reported that they were fired upon, however no injuries were reported.

On June 9, 2014 Covina Police Detectives conducted a follow-up investigation in the 600 block of East Ruddock Street resulting in the arrest of a second male subject in connection with the shooting. The subject was in possession of a small caliber handgun. The subject has been identified as 22 year old Adam Romero from the East Los Angeles area. Both subjects are suspected gang members.

A third subject in connection with the shooting is still outstanding. Covina Police Detectives are continuing their investigation and if anyone has information regarding this crime, please contact Detective Oswaldo Preciado at (626) 384-5613.
